Academic Year-2022-23

Name of The Sports	Kho-Kho
Date	23/4/2023
Coordinator	Prof. Kadam R.A.

Introduction-

Experts believe that Kho Kho originated in the Maharashtra region of India and in the ancient times was played on chariots and was called RATHERA. Rath is the Hindi translation for a chariot. The present version of Kho Kho, played by individuals on foot, originated in 1914 at the time of the first World War.

Objectives-

The prime motive of the team is to send all the players of the opponent's team out of the ground by chasing and tapping them out to win the play. The runners run in a predecided area and the team that takes the least time to tap or tag all the opponents in the field wins the game.
